

YOU ASK ME IF I LOVE YOU.

Arranged for the

GUITAR.

BY

EDWARD NENNSTIEL.

St. Louis.

Published by BALMER & WEBER 56 Fourth Street.

Louisville Peters Webb & Co:

Cincinnati W.C. Peters & Sons.

ANDANTE.

Affettuoso.

Be - fore that vow was ut - - ter'd - - You wish'd me oft to tell The p You ask me if I love - - - you Ah! why that vain re - quest - - - thoughts the deep af - - fec - - - tions That si - - lence told too well - - - - - Why

Is not your arm a - - round me My head up-on your breast! - - - - - And wish my trem - bling ac - - - cents \ That si - lence now to break, When mf have I not for - sa - - - ken The kind ones, and the true, Who all my looks and ac - - - tions, So well so tru - ly speak; Then loved me in my child - - hood, For you yes, all rall. for you! dim. Then ask not IF I love you, When change of time or tide, In a tempo. p ask not IF I love you, When, kneel - ing by your side, The life can no more part - - us, For am I - - - am I not your Bride Oh! am I not your cres. pia animato. cres.

 so - lemn words were spo - - ken That made me now your Bride That made me now your

Bride Yes, am I not your Bride - - - - ritard.
 Bride Yes! that make me now your Bride - - - - a tempo.